
Your Expert Guide

American Revolution Tours Expert Guide

Your Host and Guide

Col. Jack Matthews, USMC, Ret., PhD

"Black Jack" Matthews, a retired Marine Corps Officer and twice wounded in Vietnam, holds a PhD in American Studies from Washington State University. Jack is a charismatic and fascinating story teller who brings our heroes to life. Professor Emeritus, Marine Corps University, he is our nation's first licensed historic tour guide for Saratoga National Battlefield and is an adjunct faculty member for Saratoga, Lexington & Concord Battlefields.

"Jack brings heroes to life." Harry Thompson; Major, British Royal Marines.

"Black Jack isn't just a great leader ... he inspires leadership in others." Lieutenant General Al Gray, USMC; then Commander Fleet Marine Forces Atlantic; 29th Commandant of the US Marine Corps

"No single officer has had more impact on the United States Marine Corps than has this experienced, reflective and wise leader." Lieutenant General Jim Mattis; USMC; Commander Joint Forces Command